Food pantry

Landisville Mennonite donated 328 pounds of food to the pantry in June. Thank you for your donations. Cereal, canned soups and jelly are the requested items for July. The items can be placed in the bins provided in the lobby.

The Hempfield Clothing bank hosted in our building will reopen in mid-August. We need good quality, clean items appropriate for late summer and early fall. Children's and infant items are especially in demand. Please put your donations by the door of the clothing bank in the rear lobby. Thanks for your help. Watch for upcoming announcements about other ways you can help or talk to Jen Sauder or Gina Burkhart.

Guess Who's Coming to Lunch

Help Set Up for the Annual Book Frolic

I am in search of 8-12 volunteers to help move boxes of books in preparation for the Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society's annual Book Frolic. On the evening of Friday, August 5, we will move boxes for about two hours from the Historical Society's basement to a holding truck outside. Pizza included. Please contact harrison.horst@yahoo.com if you are interested. Thanks!
