Work Day at Material Resource Center

On November 14, the Material Resources Center will host Landisville Mennonite for the annual work day. There will be many tasks in the warehouse, quilt room and sewing room. Work from 9:00 am until 3:00 pm or part of the day. Bring a packed lunch and come and enjoy a day of service projects. Address is 517 W. Trout Run Road, Ephrata, or meet at the church at 8:30 to car pool.

Prayers for our nation – invitation from Laurel Street Mennonite

As our country and communities experience division and increasing polarization this election season, you are invited to a weekly hour of quiet intercessory prayer for our nation. Leave all political leanings and discourse at home, and come pray with people of faith from multiple churches for peace and unity in our nation. All are welcome. For those who prefer to kneel, you are welcome to bring your own pillow. Child-care will be available for ages 6 and under. Quiet prayerful art activities on peace and unity will be available for older children and adults at their seats. WHEN: Wednesdays until, and immediately following, the presidential election (Oct 19, Oct 26, Nov 2, and Nov 9) from 7-8 pm, at Laurel Street Mennonite Church, 301 Laurel St, Lancaster, PA 17603. Phone: (717) 392-7527

Food boxes

Join Mennonite Central Committee this fall as they partner with Anabaptist churches in Pennsylvania and New York to provide food boxes to those in need. A flyer with the food list is in your mailbox. Food boxes are due October 30.
