Pastoral Search Committee Update

The Pastoral Search Committee continues to meet about every two weeks. Our seventh meeting is scheduled for July 26. The Congregation Information Form has been completed. This will be part of a packet that is available for persons who might be interested in our Lead Pastor position.

The committee has reviewed the feedback on the priorities for the tasks for a Lead Pastor. Based on the 83 responses, the following five lead pastoral tasks were rated most highly:

- Preaching
- Leadership/Administration
- Christian Spirituality
- Healthy Communication
- Congregational Care

The committee is beginning to review bios of persons who are looking for a pastor position. If you have names of persons you would like to suggest for this position, please contact anyone on the committee: Christine Baer, Jen Bowman Sauder, Nance Fertich, Harold Shenk or myself. Joanne Dietzel, Atlantic Coast Conference Minister, continues to meet with the committee.

The checklist in the narthex is updated periodically to show the status of the committee's work. The committee continues to welcome your comments and prayers. -LaVern Yutzy, chair

Supplies for MCC

Mennonite Central Committee is requesting many supplies to be sent to many countries where they are requested. This year from January to June our church sent to the Material Resources Center 120 Relief Kits, 33 Comforters, 30 Infant Care Kits and 14 Hygiene Kits. The women's sewing group provided many of these items. You can help by collecting school supplies for School Kits and supplies for Hygiene Kits. We will collect these supplies for several months and then the congregation will be invited to assemble the kits this fall. Last year we made 361 school kits and 370 hygiene kits. Lists for these kits are in your mail boxes and also on the literature table. More information about the work of MCC and be found on MCC web site. -Janet Newswanger
