“Package Deal”

Do you vow to love the Church despite her failures and flaws, so that your love for her makes you and her more beautiful, more radiant?

Do you vow to resist the urge to carelessly coexist with or callously quit the Church when she drives you crazy?

Do you vow for the sake of the Church to give when you want to withhold, to show up when you want to stay home, to serve when you'd rather be a spectator, to reconcile when you'd rather avoid, to commend at least as much as you critique?

Do you vow to recognize the Church's role in your life – the means for deep union with Christ and the means of transformation to become more like Christ?
