Congregational announcements

Welcoming Marilou and Ron Adams to Landisville

We eagerly look forward to having Ron and Marilou join our congregation. Jane & Dave Yoder and Lisa & Darrell Mast will be coordinating our efforts to greet Ron and Marilou warmly and to help them transition to the Lancaster area. If you have ideas on how to extend hospitality or would like to offer of your gifts in specific ways, please speak with Lisa, Darrell, Jane or Dave.

Young Adult Care Packages

Each spring we put together care packages for the young adults in our congregation. These packages are sent to folks both near and far in order to remind them that we love them and continue to support them. There are ten boxes ready for filling in the lobby. Please contact Michelle Rutt if you have any questions or if you think of someone who should be added to receive a care package.

Superbowl viewing party at the church

All are invited to come watch this year's Superbowl at the church, Sunday February 2. Plans are to have a big screen projection in the connections room for general viewing and other TVs available for other rooms (could have a "serious fan" room, youth room, etc.) Church will be open at 6:00 and game time is 6:30. Feel free to come for all or part of the game. Bring your favorite snack to share. Enjoy root beer floats and/or ice cream Sundays at halftime. For non-football fans feel free to bring your own activity (puzzle/games) and come enjoy this informal time of fellowship and food. Multipurpose room will be open for kids to play. For more information please contact Darrell Mast vbmast@hotmail.com. RSVP not required but welcome so we can plan accordingly and accommodate any special interests.
