Congregational Announcements

Dear Landisville Mennonite Church,

Thank you for giving us a place to grow!

Please return your nomination forms for church offices to the reply box by August 10. Thank you!

August 3, Intergenerational Sunday School option

Children and Adults of all ages are welcome to meet in sanctuary for the SS time. The lesson will be adapted from the children's SS material: the story of Ananias and Saul in Acts 9. Sunday School time includes music, skit, craft, and snack.

August 10, Picnic Potluck at the Amos Herr Park pavilion

All are welcome to enjoy an informal time together at Amos Herr Park! Please bring food to share and your own picnic supplies. Ice water will be provided, as well as extra supplies. We plan to leave for the park after the worship service and be ready to eat around 11:30.

New books in the library

Recently some new books were added to our church library. Stop by to check them out.

-Dancing with Max by Emily Colson. Emily honestly shares her story of facing single parenthood as the mother of an autistic child. Max, Emily's son, is a young man who captures and changes the hearts of those around him.

-In the Trunk of Grandma's Car by Donna J. Stoltzfus. This children's book shares the story of Edna Ruth Byler, whose vision and passion for helping women find jobs and feed their families turned into what is known as Ten Thousand Villages.

If you donate new books to the church library, please notify a librarian so new titles can be highlighted in our bulletin. Thank you.

There will be a box at church to deposit school kit supplies. Drawstring bags are available from Landisville Mennonite Women's sewing group. -Janet Newswanger
