Lancaster Mennonite Conference discernment

For a long time, there have been various perspectives among Lancaster Conference congregations and leaders about the conference's relationship with the broader Mennonite church. Lancaster Conference leadership is now beginning an intentional discernment process about affiliation with Mennonite Church USA. Bishop board is meeting July 17 to process next steps, and this will be followed by listening meetings held at various locations in August and September (all are invited; stay tuned for details), and a credentialed leaders assembly on September 18. Please pray for Jesus' peace and guidance at these meetings. Our pastors will be finding ways for our congregation to discuss hopes and concerns related to this, as well. Feel free to contact any of them with questions and thoughts.
