The Congregational Leadership Board is pleased to announce that Walter Hurst has agreed to serve our congregation as a part-time custodian. He will be assuming the cleaning and maintenance responsibilities recently vacated by Jim and Anne Miller. In addition, Walter is assuming the primary responsibility for opening and closing the church building for Sunday morning worship and Wednesday Nights Out. He may be contacting other people for assistance in opening and closing the church as the need arises.

Year-to-date financial reports

Please help yourself to the green reports that show our activity through the end of October. Note that our income is (-$65,518.41) below budget so hopefully we can correct this shortage during the next two months. The good news is that our expenses are less than anticipated. Please ask me any questions - Lester Groff, Treasurer
