Congregational announcements

Dear church family,

What a blessing it is to have such a loving and supportive congregation at a time like this. We all have felt overwhelmed with your outpouring of cards, letters, flowers and personal words of comfort. A special thank you to the kitchen committee who provided such a lovely meal after the service. To those of you who faithfully visited John this past year we send our heartfelt gratitude. We cannot even imagine going through times like this without you all.

Love and blessings,

brother Jim Gingrich, sister Mary Elizabeth and daughter Ann Martin

Action! Initiatives discussions and plans

April 15 Peaceable Witness Plans

How do we help one another think through ways of living and doing that represent Jesus, especially as it relates to the “strangers” in our land and others in distant places where our western power impacts their lives in negative ways? Can we find ways to be more proactive, a little more like the Good Samaritan and less like the Priest and Levite? We will eat and sup together, simple food; hoagies. Those who wish to feed themselves and their families something other are most welcome to brown bag. If you plan to eat hoagies, be sure to sign up so that adequate numbers can be brought. There is a sign-up sheet posted on the table in at the information alcove. The meetings will begin by noon or before and make every effort to end by 1:30. -Dale K. Stoltzfus

“Sister Salad – Aloha!”

An invitation for women and girls of all ages Sunday, April 22, from 5-7 pm in the Reception Room of the church. (aka Connections Room) Bring a salad to share—hot or cold. Enjoy fellowship and laughter. Questions? Check with Miriam Nafziger, Fannie Miller, Brenda Horst or Carolyn Rudy.
