Wednesday Night Out - September 5

7:00-8:00 (no meal)

All ages are included in this evening of working together to bless others around the world. In just an hour we can assemble hundreds of school kits and hygiene kits for Mennonite Central Committee to distribute to those in need. Come help and enjoy dessert together afterward!

Peaceable Witness update

One area of interest expressed by some who have attended Peaceable Witness meetings over the past months is to become better informed about issues in our world. Some would simply like to learn more. Some are open to attending educational or informational events. Some are eager for ways to “do to others as [they] would have others do to [them]” (Matt. 7:12) by advocating to government, the press, or others on behalf of those without a voice or whose voices are stifled or ignored.

If this sounds like you, here is one opportunity. Beginning in mid-September, Ed Nyce will send out periodic emails to those who sign up to receive notices about what's happening in our world, in the U.S. and beyond. Most of these will be foci of Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) U.S. Washington Office, and more broadly of MCC as well.

Our hope is that this will assist those who wish to increase engagement with God's world on their own, and those with interest in learning or acting with others to have some common jumping off points.

If you would like to sign up, please send your email address and indicate your interest to Ed at enyce@hotmail.com. If you have questions, talk to Ed, Dale Stoltzfus, Ron Adams, or Gina Burkhart.

It's easy to stay abreast of what MCC U.S. Washington Office is doing apart from being on the email list. Learn more at <https://mcc.org/get-involved/advocacy/washington>.
