Training session for new visitor volunteers to York Prison

Pennsylvania Immigration Resource Center, the York County YMCA, and Landisville Mennonite Church, sponsors of a visitation program to international detainees held at the York County Prison, will be offering a training session for new visitor volunteers on Thursday March 14 from 7:00-8:30 pm at First Presbyterian Church 225 East Market Street, York, PA. Anyone with any interest in the subject is welcome to attend, whether or not they sign up as volunteers. This particular program, called Walking Together, was launched on November 5, 2018. Approximately 70 individual visits have taken place so far. There is presently a pressing need for visits by Spanish speaking females. There is a parking lot behind the church, across Clark Avenue. From the parking lot enter the door marked "Kerr Building" under the arched walkway between the chapel and the sanctuary. The training will be held in room 209. Please send an email to logcab7@ptd.net if you intend to participate or call Dale Stoltzfus at 717-940-4412.
