Congregational announcements

Resources on Animal Theology

God, Humans and Animals: An Invitation to Enlarge Our Moral Universe, by Robert N. Wennberg (Eerdmans, 2003)

Good Eating, by Stephen H. Webb (Brazos, 2001)

On God and Dogs: A Christian Theology of Compassion for Animals, by Stephen H. Webb (Oxford, 1998)

Animal Gospel, by Andrew Linzey (Westminster/John Knox, 1998)

Antiracism resources

The Racism Study Committee is sharing reports/summaries of books on display in the lobby.

Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Coates wrote this book for his 15-year-old son to remind him of continuing racial injustice in America and the dangers of being black—particularly a black male—in a white supremacist world. He writes about living in constant fear of making a wrong move or of his son making a wrong move, knowing that their black bodies are always at risk of violence. He offers little hope for freedom and equality for blacks anytime soon. This book is a poignant wake-up for those of us who live with and benefit from white privilege.
