Congregational announcements

Gina Burkhart will be on vacation March 1-7. For pastoral care needs please contact any member of the pastoral care team: Mary Fretz, Karl & Ellen Steffy, Jack Nolt, or Larry Newswanger.

Ash Wednesday, March 2, marks the beginning of lent. It is a season of repentance and re-committal to follow the way of Jesus. A brief self-guided service will be available in the sanctuary between 6:30- 7:30 p.m. Karl and Ellen Steffy will be available to mark a cross of ashes on your forehead or hand at the conclusion as a visible reminder of our spiritual journey with Christ.

EMU Chamber Singers, Friday, March 4 at 7:00 pm

Invite others to join us as we host the Eastern Mennonite University Chamber Singers for an evening concert. (Masks will be worn.)
Livestream link for the concert: <https://vimeo.com/event/1816685>

TBB Highlight

If you missed the conversation of “Highway to Nowhere”, it can be watched here: <https://youtu.be/nPX5uoCo2YI>. Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake shares a glimpse of a Baltimore highway that separated thriving neighborhoods of people of color, the results from that disruption, and work to recover.

Environmental justice films coming soon: “On the Fenceline: A Fight for Clean Air” and “The Sacrifice Zone: Life in an Industrial Wasteland” looks at how low-income communities in Philadelphia and Newark, NJ suffer from health issues and the cycle of injustice. The website, One Earth Film Festival, will feature these and other virtual watch party films starting on March 4.
