End-of-Winter-Fest

Saturday, March 16 at 7:00 p.m. This is our annual hobby and entertainment showcase.

Hobby Display: We love to see what you have been creating in the past year. All kinds of hobbies from all ages and skill levels can be displayed in the gym. Sign up so that we can create space for your display.

Entertainment showcase: share your favorite skits, music, jokes, poetry, and all of those undisclosed talents you've been hiding from us! Be brave- we are a supportive audience! Cajole your friends and family into participating with you! Sign-up in the lobby or contact Gina Burkhardt (gburkhardt@landisvillemennonite.org)

Wednesday Night Out March 13 @ 6:00 p.m.

A meal will be provided by the Care & Share Sunday School Class. There will be no program that evening so it will be a good time to prepare for the End-of-Winter-Fest with practice time and the stage available for rehearsals.

Singers of all ages are invited to participate in a choir

representing Landisville Mennonite at a local ecumenical choir festival May 23. I've chosen the following hymns for us to share with others at the festival. VT # 70 Praise God, #276 Solemn Stillness, and #556 I Bind My Heart this Tide. Additionally, we'll join a mass choir singing two anthems selected by another director. Rehearsals will be from 11:30-12:30, Sundays in April and early May. Please sign up on the form on the back table so the planners know how many copies are needed of the two mass choir anthems. Thank you - Eric Henderson

Thanks for participating in the My Coins Count collection.

Today you will have an opportunity to contribute during the service. This year, My Coins Count benefits MCC relief efforts to support water initiatives. Let us know if you have any questions.

-Darrell and Lisa Mast (vbmast@gmail.com)

Food Bank

2024 Atlantic Coast Conference Assembly

All are invited to ACC's 2024 Assembly at Ridgeview Mennonite Church on March 15-16. This Assembly's theme of "Living the Change" will explore how we deal with change in society and the church. How do we wrestle with old expectations and new realities? Many Christians are hungry for a place to live out vibrant, Jesus-centered life with others. How does the church nurture that today in a way that connects with all ages, races, and backgrounds? In what ways does "doing church" require a pivot to encounter Jesus and accomplish God's purposes? We invite both delegates and non-delegates to join us for the weekend's events. This year's Assembly will also offer programming for children K-5, and childcare for those younger than kindergarten age. For details/registration information go to: https://atlanticcoastconference.net/2024\_assembly/

Global Voices Tour

Wednesday evening, February 28. Around the world, MCC's partners work to support people in adapting to the challenges of climate change. Climate change is making difficult situations even worse. To work for just and durable peace is to name, dismantle and transform structures and legacies of injustice, including those that contribute to differential impacts of climate change around the world. ACC and MCC will be hosting Caroline Pugen (Zimbabwe) and Victor Odinda (Cambodia) in the U.S. to highlight the experiences of their local communities and provide opportunities for you to get involved!

Volunteer opportunity

The Mennonite Life Visitors Center is looking for volunteers to host the Tabernacle Experience. This includes giving a brief introduction (provided) to the tabernacle up to six times per day, usually one day per week. Interested persons should contact Roy Bender at 717 823 7207, or Irbender@aol.com, or in person.

Soap collection for MCC

Mennonite Women are inviting the congregation to add to their soap offering for MCC. Family sized individually wrapped soap bars can be dropped in the basket in the foyer by the book cart. The collection will be collected until the end of February.
