We Say Farewell

Our dear friends, Pat and Lamar Myers, have decided to seek Christian community elsewhere. We have been blessed in a multitude of ways by their presence among us, and have been enriched by the generosity with which they've shared their gifts. Now we say goodbye and offer our blessing to them. May they find the community they seek and may that community be blessed by their presence. And may the presence of the Holy Spirit guide them in their search.

Prayer of Confession

Holy God,
Some days, we are quick to declare your goodness.
Like Peter, we see you in our midst and we are confident in our faith.
Other days, we are distracted and uncertain, desperate for answers.
Forgive us for losing sight of you.

Some days we are quick to trust your blessings—trusting that we are called, that we can make a difference.
Other days, our praise falls silent and doubt creeps in.
Forgive us for losing sight of ourselves.

We know that fear and doubt are part of the journey of faith.
But for the days when we are far from you and far from ourselves, we ask for your tender grace.
Pull us closer toward you. Remind us of the mountaintop moments of our faith. Amen.

Offertory

The Via Dolorosa

Down the Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem that day
The soldiers tried to clear the narrow streets
But the crowd pressed in to see
The Man condemned to die on Calvary

He was bleeding from a beating,
There were stripes upon his back
And He wore a crown of thorns upon His head
And He bore with every step
The scorn for those who cried out for his death

Down the Via Dolorosa called the way of suffering
Like a lamb came the Messiah, Christ the King
But He chose to walk that road out of His love for you and me
Down the Via Dolorosa, all the way to Calvary

The blood that would cleanse the souls of all
Made its way to the heart of Jerusalem
Down the Via Dolorosa, called the way of suffering
Like a lamb came the Messiah, Christ the King
But he chose to walk that road out of love for you and me
Down the Via Dolorosa, all the way to Calvary.
